

Unicoi n Announces Its Upcoming Listing on INX.One Trading Platform

TORONTO, Sept. 20, 2023 /CNW/ -- The INX Digital Company, Inc. (NEO: INXD, INXATS: INX, OTCQB: INXDF) ("INX"), a US-regulated broker-dealer, ATS, and transfer agent, announced today the upcoming listing of the Unicoi n security token on INX's fully-regulated trading platform for crypto and tokenized assets.

Launched by the producers of Unicoi n Hunters, asset-backed Unicoi n offers holders inherent value by being supported by a fast-growing portfolio of real estate and equity positions in high-growth companies.

"We are thrilled to work with Unicoi n, a company that has taken a different and exciting approach to creating investment opportunities," said Itai Avneri, Deputy CEO and COO of INX. "Their investor base is global and diverse, and we welcome them to INX. Their participation will undoubtedly bolster the rapidly increasing liquidity in the domain of listed tokenized assets."

Unicoi n is issued under the Regulations D and S, filing exemptions to the U.S. Securities Act. Unicoi n is the official cryptocurrency of the Unicorn Hunters show, featuring business luminaries, industry leaders, and policymakers such as Steve Wozniak, co-founder of Apple. Forbes magazine described Unicorn Hunters as "the most iconic business series of recent times." This unique show provides founders of emerging growth companies with a global platform, allowing them to pitch their innovations to a sprawling audience of potential investors. Simultaneously, the show offers the audience unprecedented access to pre-IPO investment opportunities.

"Considering the global holder base, the choice of INX Securities as the trading platform is a strategic one. INX boasts accessibility to investors from over 60 countries and continues to expand its global footprint," said Silvina Moschini, President and Founder of Unicoi n, Inc., and Executive Producer of Unicorn Hunters. "This listing, which is scheduled to go live late October, promises to be the confluence of Unicoi n's visionary approach to investment opportunities and INX's expansive and regulated trading platform, marking a new era in the realm of tokenized assets."

The potency of Unicoi n's value is derived from its backing - a portfolio that consists of real estate and equity stakes in high-growth companies. Each of the current portfolio companies of Unicoi n has been showcased on the widely acclaimed Unicorn Hunters series so that holders of the Unicoi n security token are positioned to benefit from the expansive upside potential intrinsic to these entities.

Unicoi n is also developing its real estate portfolio through its Unicoi n.com/140 program. One of Unicoi n's recent landmark moves was the acquisition of a Copper Mine in Argentina. This acquisition, notable as the most substantial properties-for-crypto deal, was valued at an astonishing $210M. Such endeavors have placed Unicoi n at the forefront of the crypto asset revolution.

The date of listing of Unicoi n on INX will be announced separately and be selected based on the dynamics of the crypto market.
